

National hospital - the first public institution of health, created for the civil

National hospital is the first state health Agency created for the civilian population. In 1878 Pishpek was opened the emergency room with one bed for critically ill patients who became a founder of the Republican clinical hospital which for 135 years has grown to a modern multidisciplinary organization of health care tertiary level. Bed capacity of the hospital increased to 1,430 beds. In 1997 by decree of the President of the Kyrgyz Republic in order to improve the effectiveness of the provision of health care to the population of the Republic on the basis of the Republican clinical hospital was created by the national hospital under the Ministry of health of the Kyrgyz Republic was assigned the status as the highest state multidisciplinary medical facility providing highly specialized inpatient and outpatient medical care to the population of the Kyrgyz Republic. To date, the structure of the National function hospital 34 clinical departments at 1075 beds consultative-diagnostic Department for 23 specialties emergency and routine outpatient care the medical aviation provides around the clock medical care to patients throughout the Republic in 59 specialties the Department of medical rehabilitation the Department of transfusion medicine center of emergency medical aid during emergencies and other support services. Since 1939, the hospital is used as a clinical base of the Kyrgyz state medical Institute for pedagogical and research work. Currently, the national hospital is the clinical base of the 20 departments of the Kyrgyz state medical Academy, she of retraining and improvement of qualification of medical workers and other Universities having medical faculties and the basis of the Bishkek medical College, and 6 national medical centers for the training of health workers in the workplace. Currently, the national hospital is headed by Dinara Tarlykova Saginbaeva doctor of the highest category, excellent health PhD with extensive experience as a Manager who made a lot for development of the health system of the Kyrgyz Republic. The hospital staff has significant experience in providing specialized medical care bainisteoireacht highly qualified specialists including 14 doctors honored 1 honored worker of health 5 doctors of Sciences and 45 candidates of medical Sciences 222 staff awarded the badge excellent worker of health care. Every year at the National hospital get professional stationary

Link to article:: National hospital - the first public institution of health, created for the civil